

Jean-François Diet,

Chief Executive Officer CEE

Jean-François Diet has been Chief Executive Officer CEE and member of Group Executive Committee since January 2015. In this capacity, he oversees the activities of the Group's subsidiaries in Austria, Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Greece, Russia, Switzerland and Turkey. He is also in charge of the relationship between the Europ Assistance Group and the Generali Group, its sole shareholder. Jean-François Diet is also CEO of Europ Assistance Austria since 1999 and a member of the management board of Europäische Reiseversicherung Austria since 2004.

Jean-François Diet began his career at the international department of the Europ Assistance Group where he oversaw the creation of Europ Assistance Portugal.

In 1992, he joined Europ Assistance Germany, first as finance controller and then as head of marketing and sales.

In 1996, he moved to Austria to create the company and open several subsidiaries in CEE (Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, and Russia).

He was appointed Managing Director of Europ Assistance Austria in 1999 and in parallel with this position, which he still holds, became CEO of Europ Assistance Germany until 2009.

From 2009 on he was in charge of the development of Health products for the Europ Assistance Group as Group Health Manager. In 2010, he set up the Turkish subsidiary.

Jean-François Diet is a graduate of the Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Paris (E.S.C.P.) specialized in finance and international legal affairs (1991).
