

Manrico Iachia,

Chief Executive Officer South-Africa, Latin America, Portugal

Manrico Iachia has been Chief Executive Officer South-Africa, Latin America, Portugal since January 2015 and a member of the Europ Assistance Group's Executive Committee since 2004. In this capacity, he oversees the Group's activities in South Africa, Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Portugal. He has also been Managing Director of Europ Assistance Portugal since 1989 and has chaired the Board of Directors of Europ Assistance Brazil and Europ Assistance Argentina since 1995.

Manrico Iachia began his professional career in the insurance industry as head of the International Department at Concorde from 1983 to 1984 (Generali Group). In 1985, he joined Europ Assistance in Great Britain as International Marketing Director, later holding the same position in New York from 1986-1987. From 1989 to 1993, he managed Europ Assistance's International Department from Paris.

In 1996, he became Manager of the Iberian Peninsula and Latin America. In 1997, he was made Chairman of the Board of Directors of Europ Assistance Spain. In 2004, Manrico Iachia was appointed Executive Vice President of the Europ Assistance Group and a member of its Executive Committee, responsible for the zone comprising the Iberian Peninsula and Latin America, Israel and the Asia region.

Since 2011, Manrico Iachia has been Executive Vice-President and a member of the Group's Executive Committee, in charge of the Group's Innovation and prospective centre, as well as the Iberian Peninsula, Africa, Latin America and Asia region.

Multilingual, Manrico Iachia holds a degree in international finance from Columbia University (New York). He also holds a diploma in political science from the University of Milan. He is a Commander of the National Order of Merit of the Italian Republic and Knight of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta. He has been awarded the Officer Cross "Pro Merito Melitensi" of the Order of Malta.