

Samir Lahlou,

Group Deputy Chief Financial Officer

Samir Lahlou started his international career at the Schlumberger group in 1997, where for 10 years he held various financial positions in Belgium, France and Norway at the Group, Europe/Africa Region and subsidiary levels.

In 2007, he joined the International SOS group in Paris as Regional Finance Director Continental Europe, the Maghreb and Africa, before his appointment in 2012 as Regional CFO for Northern Europe, based in London.

In 2014, he joined the Generali Group in Milan, where he oversaw planning and management control of Generali Global Business Lines before taking up his duties with Europ Assistance in July 2015.

Samir Lahlou is a graduate of the Aix-Marseille University and the Kedge Business School