

Stéphane Vermersch,

Group Chief Financial Officer

Stéphane Vermersch began his career in 1992 at Arthur Andersen Audit in Paris as Head of Mission for Industry and Services. In 1995, he took charge of International Management Control at Louis Vuitton Malletier. In 1999, he joined Hilti France and created the financial controlling department of which he became Manager in addition to the subsidiary's financial services.

Stéphane Vermersch joined the Europ Assistance Group in October 2002 as Deputy to the Group Deputy CEO. He was appointed Financial Director of the Group in January 2005 before being made Managing Director of the Irish Branch (EAIB) in 2009, in parallel with this post. In April 2014, Stéphane Vermersch became a member of the Executive Group Committee in his capacity as Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

Stéphane Vermersch is a graduate of ESSEC Paris (1992) and ESTP (1990).